Congressional.

At last the debate on the Salary bill, in the Senate has ended. The bill was passed on Monday, and repeals all increased salaries except that of the President and Judges of Supreme Court. It also declares all back pay not yet drawn by Senators and Representatives, and all that has been drawn and returned to the Treasury, as belonging to the United States. The repeal takes effect from the passage of the bill.

President Grant on Friday sent in to the Senate the name of Hon. Caleb Cushing for confirmation as Chief Justice. The nomination was received with much disfavor in Washington, and in various parts of the country. There is little chance that he will be confirmed; the Republican Congressmen, with few exceptions, are opposed to Mr. Cushing's confirmation, principally on the ground that it places the highest judicial tribunal in the land in the hands of the State Rights Democrats. The N. Y. Times is too intensely Republican to look with favor upon the appointment of a life long Democrat to one of the most important positions in the country. It says: "We are unable to explain or justify Mr. Cushing's nomination, and therefore we shall not attempt to do either. We can only regard the present game of blindman's bluff in reference to the Chief Justiceship with surprise and mortification."

The proposed parade of workmen, which was to have taken place in New York on Tuesday, and from which an exciting disturbance was expected, was prevented by the timely protests of a number of the Workmen's Associations, who held meetings on Monday evening, and expressed their disapproval of any such demonstration, besides encouraging the authorities to prevent it. A large number of men, however, met at Tompkins Square, with banners, etc., and quite a riot occurred. The police made an onslaught on the crowd, which broke and ran, with exception of the Teutonic Ward Association, the leader of which was one Christian Meyer. He wore a communist badge—a Greek cross in a red ground. He held in his hand a heavy hammer attached to a rope wound around his hand. When the police reached him he and the surrounding crowd made desperate resistance, refusing to move at all. A brief but fierce scuffle ensued. The police dashed into the centre of the men and using their clubs heavily soon gained possession of the ground. The man Meyer struck a sergeant of police two dangerous blows with his hammer, but was at length overpowered and arrested.

A shocking calamity occurred on Tuesday morning in a well-known family in New York. The residence of Jacob Stiner, tea-dealer, took fire during the night, and three of the inmates lost their lives. Early in the morning a man passing the house discovered that a fire was raging within and gave the alarm. After a long struggle the flames were subdued, and an entrance effected when the bodies of Mrs. Stiner, and that of a daughter were found, death having resulted from suffocation. At the rear of the house the mangled body of Mr. Stiner was found in an area, he having jumped from a window, two stories above.

A terrible tragedy occurred in Bergen Wednesday night, in a very respectable family. A young man named Joseph W. Freeman shot and killed his mother, a widow lady named Mary W. Freeman, because she refused to accede to a demand for money. It is supposed that he is insane. After the fatal deed, the murderer left the house where it was committed, and was subsequently arrested. He was taken to the station house, and at the sergeant's desk stated that he is 27 years of age, a native of New Jersey and without occupation. Upon being questioned as to his motive for shooting his mother he stated that it was accidental; that he intended to shoot himself, and the ball missing its mark, lodged in the body of the unfortunate victim. He was committed to the cells, and once or twice inquired of officers who passed his cell, as to his mother's condition. Upon being told that she was dead, he sat down and cried like a child.

Dispatches from the coal districts in the Schuylkill region represent that a general strike is imminent. The men are very determined, the basis question having been thoroughly discussed, and they are better prepared for a strike now than ever before. There is much difference of opinion among the leading coal operators as to how long the strike will continue and what length of time the men will be able to stand out, many believing that it will continue until the middle of April or the first of May, and some think a compromise may be effected by the 17th of the present month, the time given for a final answer whether they will accept or reject the proposition.

What a more exhilarating sight, asks a Vermont paper, "than to see eighteen handsome girls riding down hill on an ox sled?"

New Jersey Legislature.

Both house of the Legislature organized on Tuesday. The Senate elected John W. Taylor of Essex, President; Mr. J. F. Babcock of Middlesex, Secretary; Mr. J. W. Newlin of Cumberland, Clerk, and B. F. Wood of Salem, Engrossing Clerk. There was a long struggle in the Senate Republican caucus between the adherents of ex-Senator Irick of Burlington and those of Mr. Babcock for the Secretaryship, the vote standing 7 to 7 for nearly two hours. The Assembly elected Mr. G. A. Hobart of Passaic, Speaker; Mr. Linnickson of Camden, Clerk, and Col. Applegate of Monmouth, Engrossing Clerk. A considerable number of unimportant bills was introduced in both Houses. In the Assembly a resolution was passed requesting the Speaker to appoint two new committees—one for a revision of the laws, and one on railways and canals.

A notable feature of the Democratic caucus was the adoption of a resolution to prevent any repeal of the General Railroad law of last winter.

After the appointment of the committees of both houses, the Legislature adjourned over until Monday next.

After many delays, says the Orange Chronicle, there is now a definite prospect regarding the completion of the Watching railroad between this city and New York. The iron has been purchased, and the rails are now being laid by Mr. Lawrence Reilly, contractor. If the weather remains favorable, this portion of the work will probably be completed within two weeks, and the road be in running order by spring.

Ex-Mayor Bigelow, of Newark died on Saturday last in the seventy-third year of age. He was possessed of large wealth, practical enterprise, and generous nature, and his life and character were those of the Christian gentleman.

Jacob Mechella was hanged on Friday morning in the Hudson County Jail, for the murder of United States Marshall Stephenson, in July last. The particulars of the crime are still fresh in the memory of our readers. Mechella dodged his victim's steps, and stabbed him in the most brutal and cowardly manner. Since his arrest he has acted more like a wild beast than a man, using habitually the vilest language, and repaying with brutal scorn and insult every attempt to better his moral or physical condition. He went to the scaffold smoking a cigar, and seemed hardly to realize the fate that awaited him. The hanging was accomplished after a most bungling fashion, the noose becoming untied soon after the miserable man had been lifted into the air, making it necessary to repeat the hanging process.

The entire region around Burlington appears to be destitute of all varieties of even the commonest game birds. The open fields, the meadows and the woods are deserted—not a robin to be seen, and quails are scarce as foxes. An expert gunner has been faithfully scouring the country for miles around there in search of something for a sick man, but in vain—not a bird was to be found; nor do the pizen roosts appear to be any more productive.

The body of a beautiful girl, of about eighteen years, has been found on the shore of the Delaware River at Bordentown, N. J., and is thought to be that of a daughter of a wealthy citizen of Eastern Pennsylvania, who has offered a reward of $500 for her recovery, dead or alive.

Monmouth Park was sold at sheriff's sale last week. William C. Ellis, of New York, was the purchaser, the price paid being $32,000.

The following advertisement appeared in the Philadelphia Ledger of Thursday last:

WANTED—To trade a vault in Monument Cemetery for a piano. 227 North 6th St.

This is the next toast given by a bachelor at a banquet in Newcastle, England: "The women and coal of Durham County—O, how desolate would the fireside be without them!"

DEVOS'S BRILLIANT OIL

In Cans With Patent Faucets.

PERFECTLY SAFE.

The Finest Illuminating Oil in the World.

Certificate of R. OGDEN DOREMUS,
Professor of Chemistry, College of City of New York, and Bellevue Hospital.

"Your method of arranging packages, so secured that the purchaser may rely on obtaining it undisturbed, and as though received from your hands, cannot be too highly commended. The community have long needed the protection you thus offer, and I have no doubt it will be appreciated."

The leading officers of all Fire Insurance Companies, having examined the Sealed Can in which the Oil is placed by the Manufacturers, do hereby RECOMMEND THIS OIL to all having need for such an illuminator, and believe that the result will be a saving of life and a diminution in the number of fires from Kerosene Lamp explosions, as to make all companies, more readily insure premises where this Oil is used for lighting.
